COMPLAINT

Plaintiffs Pearson Education, Inc. ("Pearson"), John Wiley & Sons, Inc. ("Wiley"), Thomson Learning Inc. ("Thomson"), and The McGraw-Hill Companies, Inc. ("McGraw-Hill"), by their undersigned attorneys, for their complaint against defendants John Doe Nos. 1 through 5 d/b/a collegesolutions.tripod.com, d/b/a Economical Books d/b/a Cheapest Books d/b/a Central Books d/b/a/ Book Deals aver:

Nature of the Action

1. Plaintiffs are bringing this action to enforce their copyrights and trademarks against defendants' unlawful sale (i) in the United States of non-United States versions of plaintiffs' educational books and (ii) of plaintiffs' instructors' solutions manuals.

Jurisdiction and Venue

2. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over the first three claims in this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1338 because they arise under the Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. § 101 et seq., or the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1051 et seq. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over the fourth claim in this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367 because it is so related to the claims within the original jurisdiction of this Court that they form part of the same case or controversy within the meaning of Article III of the United States Constitution.

3. Upon information and belief, venue is proper in this District pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391.

Parties

4. Pearson is a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business at One Lake Street, Upper Saddle River, New Jersey 07458.

5. Wiley is a New York corporation with its principal place of business at 111 River Street, Hoboken, New Jersey 07030.

6. Thomson is a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business at 200 First Stamford Place, Stamford, Connecticut 06902.

7. McGraw-Hill is a New York corporation with its principal place of business at 1221 Avenue of the Americas, New York, New York 10020.

8. Upon information and belief, John Doe Nos. 1 through 5 d/b/a collegesolutions.tripod.com, d/b/a Economical Books d/b/a Cheapest Books d/b/a Central Books d/b/a Book Deals are natural persons whose identities are presently unknown to plaintiffs.

The Businesses of Plaintiffs

9. Each plaintiff publishes a variety of works, including educational books.

10. As a standard practice, each plaintiff requires its authors to assign the copyright to them or grant them the exclusive rights of reproduction and distribution in the United States. This practice enables each plaintiff to maximize dissemination of each work.

11. Plaintiffs invest significant monies to publish their copyrighted works. Plaintiffs, for example, make substantial investments in royalties, content creation, licensing, copyediting, proofreading, typesetting, layout, printing, binding, distribution, and promotion.

12. Plaintiffs earn a substantial portion of their revenue from the publication of their copyrighted works and would suffer serious financial injury if their copyrights were not enforced. A substantial decline in their income could cause plaintiffs to cease publishing one or more deserving books or journals. This would adversely impact the creation of new works, scholarly endeavor, and scientific progress.

13. An important part of plaintiffs' business is derived from publishing college textbooks. College professors select textbooks from competing publishers based on the pedagogical value and the quality of supplementary materials.

14. Instructor's solutions manuals are important supplementary materials. Professors use instructor's solutions manuals aid to in grading homework. Students, however, use instructor's solutions manuals to cheat. Professors are less likely to select a textbook if the instructor's solutions manuals are freely and/or widely available. Accordingly, plaintiffs do not sell their instructor's solutions manuals, and tightly control their distribution to known faculty.

15. Plaintiffs' educational textbooks authorized for sale in the United States are of the highest quality (the "United States Editions"). These books are generally printed on strong, hard-cover bindings with glossy protective coatings and, in some cases, contain extra features such as sewn ribbon bookmarks. Plaintiffs frequently offer academic supplements, such as CD-ROMs, computer passwords that provide purchasers with access to academic websites corresponding to the textbooks, and study guides with the United States Editions.

16. Plaintiffs generally create different versions of their educational books that are intended for sale in specific geographic markets outside of the United States (the "Foreign Editions"). The Foreign Editions materially differ from the United States Editions. The Foreign Editions have thinner paper and different bindings, different cover and jacket designs, fewer internal ink colors, if any, lower quality photographs and graphics, and generally lower prices than the United States Editions. Also, the Foreign Editions often lack academic supplements, such as CD-ROMs, website passwords, or study guides. The Foreign Editions are generally marked to indicate their lower cost by a legend indicating, in substance, that the title is a "Low Price Edition" and/or authorized for sale only in a particular country or geographic region. The Foreign Editions are uniformly manufactured outside of the United States.

Plaintiffs' Copyrights and Trademarks

17. Plaintiffs routinely register their copyrights. Pearson has registered the works identified on Schedule A (the "Pearson Copyrights"). Wiley has registered the works identified on Schedule B (the "Wiley Copyrights"). Thomson has registered the works identified on Schedule C (the "Thomson Copyrights"). McGraw-Hill has registered the works identified on Schedule D (the "McGraw-Hill Copyrights").

18. Plaintiffs also own, themselves or through their parent or affiliate companies, trademarks that they use to differentiate their products from those of their competitors.

19. Pearson PLC, Pearson's ultimate parent company, is the owner of and Pearson is an exclusive licensee of, with the accompanying right and duty to protect and enforce Pearson's rights therein, the well-known trademarks "Pearson," "Pearson Education" and "Prentice Hall." Pearson's affiliate corporation Addison Wesley Longman, Inc., is the owner of, and Pearson is the exclusive licensee of, with the accompanying right and duty to protect and enforce its and its affiliate company's rights therein, the well known trademarks "Addison Wesley" or "Addison-Wesley" (the "Pearson Trademarks"). The United States Registrations for the Pearson Trademarks are identified on Exhibit E.

20. Among Wiley's well-known trademarks are "John Wiley & Sons," "Wiley," and the "John Wiley Colophon" (the "Wiley Trademarks"). The United States Registrations for the Wiley Trademarks are identified on Exhibit F.

21. Among Thomson's well-known trademarks are "Thomson Learning" (the "Thomson Trademarks"). The United States Registrations for the Thomson Trademarks are identified on Exhibit G.

22. Among McGraw-Hill's well-known trademarks are "McGraw Hill," "The McGraw-Hill Companies" and "Irwin" (the "McGraw-Hill Trademarks"). The United States Registrations for the McGraw-Hill Trademarks are identified on Exhibit H.

The Infringing Acts of Defendants

23. Defendants have without permission (i) purchased Foreign Editions of plaintiffs' books manufactured outside of the United States and resold them to purchasers in the United States and (ii) reproduced and sold electronic copies of plaintiffs' instructor's solutions manuals, through online sales at www.collegesolutions.tripod.com. As of the filing of this complaint, defendants had more than 54 titles for sale on www.collegesolutions.tripod.com.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF

(Trademark Infringement - 15 U.S.C. § 1114(a))

34. Plaintiffs repeat the averments contained in paragraphs 1 through 33 above as if set forth in full.

35. Pearson is the exclusive licensee of the Pearson Trademarks, with the accompanying right and duty to protect and enforce Pearson's rights therein. Pearson's licensor parent and affiliate companies have obtained United States Trademark Registrations for the Pearson Trademarks.

36. Wiley owns the Wiley Trademarks, for which it has obtained United States Trademark Registrations.

The damage to plaintiffs includes harm to their good will and reputation in the marketplace for which money cannot compensate. Plaintiffs are particularly concerned that their trademarks are used in connection with unauthorized electronic products, which could contain malicious viruses. Plaintiffs have no adequate remedy at law for these wrongs. Plaintiffs are, therefore, entitled to a preliminary and permanent injunction restraining and enjoining defendants, their agents, servants, employees, and attorneys and all persons acting in concert with them from using the Pearson, Wiley, Thomson and McGraw-Hill Trademarks or any colorable imitation of them.

42. Defendants have willfully infringed the Pearson, Wiley, Thomson and McGraw-Hill Trademarks.

43. Plaintiffs are entitled to recover (1) defendants' profits from the infringing books, (2) plaintiffs' damages, (3) the costs of the suit, and (4) reasonable attorneys' fees.

(Trademark Counterfeiting - 15 U.S.C. § 1117)

44. Plaintiffs repeat the averments contained in paragraphs 1 through 43 above as if set forth in full.

45. In connection with the sale of their unlawfully reproduced instructors' solutions manuals, defendants have used counterfeits of the Pearson, Wiley, Thomson and McGraw-Hill Trademarks.
